----- TO -----

All friends and relatives whose interest and assistance in the compilation and possession of this booklet has made its publication a reality, I respectfully dedicate this history of the Heverly and Mutchler families.

Ada Heverly Fross.

December 1, 1942.

PREFACE

This biographical record portrays insofar as information is available, as accurately as is possible, and as completely up to the present date as can be secured, the John Ludwig Haberle and Mathias Mutchler families, and their descendants.

To date it has been impossible to verify the report that John Ludwig Haberle had a brother who followed him to this country but was never again heard from.

The name Heverly, as found in records taken from the old German Heverly Bible and also from a baptismal certificate, was originally spelled Haberle. Investigation reveals this spelling was changed to Heverly by John Heverly, eldest son of John Ludwig Haberle. The name Mutchler was originally spelled Mutschler.

The idea of this record was conceived ten years ago by my son, Hollis Heverly Fross. Had I realized then the task ahead of me, the difficulty of securing dates, and historical facts, which we all seem to be too busy to record I would probably have resisted my desire to leave behind me a record which may some day prove valuable, not only to you and your family, but to children yet unborn.

The readers of this booklet may discover some errors of date and fact, as the information contained herein was supplied by many individuals, and taken from many different sources such as old family Bibles, diaries, old records, etc. However, insofar as the writer could determine, all data is as accurate as can be secured.

I would welcome any further data, facts or corrections of, and additions to, the material contained herein, as it is my wish and desire to leave a complete and accurate record of these families and their descendants for our posterity by revising and reprinting another and more complete booklet at a later date if the changes and additions warrant.

If through an oversight, I have omitted any one, error in listing dates or places, secured and used inaccurate information, or failed to include data which you would like added for future reference of yourself and family, it would be sincerely appreciated if you would let me know at once as I want our re-issue to be as complete as living members of the family can make it.

The writer wants to especially thank

whose interest, and valuable assistance have made this book a reality, and to all others who so kindly and willingly responded to my many queries,

I thank you.

Ada Heverly Fross.

Some of the products of this firm -- gas appliances and hospital furniture -- enjoy nationwide distribution under the trademark "FOSCO" which is a contraction of Mr. Schoedinger's initials and Columbus, Ohio. The sheet metal items manufactured by his company are distributed throughout Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia.

For most people, such a vast undertaking as owning and operating a business of this magnitude as an individual enterprise would be a full time job. But Mr. Schoedinger still finds time to be one of Columbus' outstanding Civic leaders and holds important national business positions.

He is a director of the City National Bank and Trust Company of Columbus; Trustee of Greenlawn Cemetery Association; President of the Children's Hospital; Vice President, Columbus Cancer Clinic; Vice President, Society for the Prevention and Cure of Tuberculosis; Member of A. F. & A. M. Humbolt Lodge No. 476; 33rd Degree Scottish Rite Masonry Sept. 20, 1921; Chairman, Metal Branch of the National Sheet Metal Distributors' Association; Charter Member of the Columbus Rotary Club; Member of the Columbus Club and the Columbus Country Club; President 1933-1934 of the Columbus Athletic Club and Senior Warden of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church.
